Safer food assessment training held

Kochi: In a bid to address concerns on food safety in India, the European Commission, in association with FSSAI, conducted a three-day training on safer food testing for food safety officers associated with the field on the Willingdon Island Campus of the Central Institute of Fisheries Technology (CIFT).