CIFT wins 'Rajbhasha Puraskar'

Kochi: The Central Institute of Fisheries Technology (CIFT), Kochi, has bagged the Rajarshi Tandon Rajbhasha Puraskar instituted by the Indian Council of Agriculture Research (ICAR) for implementation of official language policy. This is the eighth time CIFT has won the award. The award was presented by Minister of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare Narendra Singh Tomar through virtual platform during the Foundation Day celebration of ICAR held at New Delhi on July 16. The award is given annually under the 'Rajarshi Tandon Rajbhasha Puraskar' scheme to promote the use of official language.
