

Training at CIFT

Kochi: A five-day training focusing on enhancing skill in detecting microbial contamination of fish and fish product started at the Central Institute of Fisheries Technology (CIFT) on Tuesday. The training programme is being attended by various stakeholders representing government, public and private sectors and is sponsored by National Fisheries Development Board under Training of Trainers Programme. TNN